What's New in Tuberculosis Treatment

Session Date: 07/16/2024

Session Time: 11:00 – 11:45 AM (CST)

Target Audience

This continuing education (CE) session was planned to meet the needs of professional staff who deal with the selection and monitoring of medication(s) as part of their patient care duties, including pharmacists, RNs, APRNs, PAs, MDs.

Activity Overview

Mycobacterium tuberculosis (TB) remains the leading cause of infection-related mortality worldwide. Drug resistance, need for multiple antimycobacterial agents, prolonged treatment courses, and medication-related side effects are complicating factors to TB cure. Novel treatment regimens for latent tuberculosis infection (LTBI), drug-susceptible TB and multi-drug resistant TB offer opportunities for shorter treatment courses, fewer adverse effects, and increased treatment/cure rates. This presentation will review recent landmark trials supporting updated TB treatment strategies and discuss pharmacologic principles of novel antimycobacterial agents.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this knowledge-based CE session, participants should be able to:

1. Describe recent landmark trials supporting new treatment programs for tuberculosis
2. Outline newer treatment programs for latent tuberculosis infection (LTBI), drug-susceptible tuberculosis (DS-TB), and multi-drug resistant tuberculosis (MDR-TB)
3. Discuss the pharmacology of novel antimycobacterial agents
